

Elite Player Exposure Videos

Purpose-built content for athletes pursuing the next level. DMV Made Media produces professional player exposure and recruiting videos designed to give college coaches and evaluators a clear, concise snapshot of an athlete's current abilities. From basic highlight edits to fully produced on-field evaluations, each option is structured to support the recruiting process at different stages—whether you're just starting your recruiting journey or actively communicating with college programs.

Video Packages Built for Your Recruiting Stage

Three Pathways to College Exposure

Every athlete's recruiting timeline is different. Whether you already have strong game footage that just needs professional editing, or you need a complete filmed evaluation from the ground up, DMV Made Media offers flexible solutions designed around your current needs and budget.

Our packages range from editing-only services for athletes with existing footage, to fully produced on-field evaluations with professional filming, graphics, and priority turnaround. Each option is structured to deliver what college coaches actually look for during the evaluation process.

What Coaches See in Your Video

Elite Exposure Videos Showcase Key Evaluation Points

College coaches and recruiters are looking for specific athletic indicators when evaluating players. Our professionally filmed exposure videos are structured to highlight exactly what evaluators prioritize during the recruiting process, giving you the best chance to make a strong first impression.

Each video captures the complete athletic profile coaches need to see—from verified measurables and mechanics to on-field performance and athlete presentation. This isn't just highlight footage; it's a recruiting tool designed around what actually matters in the evaluation process.

Measurables

Throwing velocity, verified 60-yard time, height and weight metrics

Mechanics

Throwing form, offensive approach, and cage work fundamentals

Athleticism

Running ability, field presence, and overall athletic movement

Presentation

Brief on-camera athlete introduction and professional editing
